FRIDAY FEBRUARY 18, 2011, 7-9:30 PM

Film: “THE COCA COLA CASE” (86 min, Carmen Garcia, German Gutierrez, 2009)

...The Truth That Refreshes Coca-Cola may be one of the most visible brands in the world, but there's one part of their operations they don't want you to see. A documentary film about Coca-Cola and labor rights in Latin America.

Colombia is the trade union murder capital of the world. Since 2002, more than 470 workers' leaders have been brutally killed, usually by paramilitaries hired by private companies intent on crushing the unions. Among these unscrupulous corporate brands is the poster boy for American business: Coca-Cola.

U.S. lawyers Daniel Kovalik and Terry Collingsworth, as well as activist Ray Rogers, stepped in and launched an ambitious crusade against the behemoth Coca-Cola. In an incredible three-year saga, filmmakers German Gutierrez and Carmen Garcia follow these heroes in a legal game of cat and mouse. From Bogota to New York, Guatemala to Atlanta, Washington to Canada, The Coca-Cola Case maintains the suspense of a hard-fought struggle. Join us following the film for a facilitated discussion.

(Event is FREE and open to the public! ...but Donations are kindly accepted).

Film: “WikiLeaks: THE DOCUMENTARY” (57 min, Björn Granberg/SVT Play, 2010)

Swedish Television SVT documentary on Wikileaks and the net activist Julian Assange which tries to get under the surface of the organization, understand the driving forces and the ideology behind the tremendous impact that Wikileaks has made the past year. “Even people within Wikileaks have wondered why SVT got this access when other media hardly managed to reach them by telephone. I think one reason for that may be that we were one of the few producers that was genuinely interested in what they were actually trying to accomplish.” - Bosse Lindqvist and Jesper Huor (SVT).

Film: “SOUTH OF THE BORDER” (78 min, Oliver Stone, 2009) With FATHER ROY BOURGEOIS, FOUNDER OF THE SCHOOL OF THE AMERICAS WATCH, and SOAW-NORTHWEST

There's a revolution underway in South America, but most of the world doesn't know it. Oliver Stone sets out on a road trip across five countries to explore the social and political movements as well as the mainstream media's misperception of South America while interviewing seven of its elected presidents. In casual conversations with Presidents Hugo Chávez (Venezuela), Evo Morales (Bolivia), Lula da Silva (Brazil), Cristina Kirchner (Argentina), as well as her husband and ex-President Néstor Kirchner, Fernando Lugo (Paraguay), Rafael Correa (Ecuador), and Raúl Castro (Cuba), Stone gains unprecedented access and sheds new light upon the exciting transformations in the region.

Father Bourgeois has traveled extensively in South America, meeting with leaders and convincing many of them to withdraw support of the US School of the Americas (now known as the Western Hemisphere Institute for Security Cooperation).

Please join us following the film for a community discussion with Father Roy Bourgeois and members of SOAW-Northwest.
