FRIDAY JANUARY 22, 2010, 7-9:30 PM

Film: "MAGGIE GROWLS" (56 min, Barbara Attie and Janet Goldwater, 2003)

"Speak your mind - even if your voice shakes, for well aimed slingshots can topple giants." - Maggie Kuhn.

MAGGIE GROWLS is a documentary film portrait of the amazing, canny, lusty, charming and unstoppable Maggie Kuhn (1905-1995), who founded the Gray Panthers in 1970 after being forced to retire from a job she loved. Her outrage and determination fueled a political chain reaction that forever changed the lives of older Americans, repealing mandatory retirement laws and proving that "old" is not a dirty word.

With a disarming mixture of humor, shock value and common sense, Maggie went on to champion universal health care, nursing home reform, shared housing and consumer protection. Out of what political activist Ralph Nader called "the most significant retirement in modern American history," Maggie created one of the most potent social movements of the century - one that was committed to justice, peace and fairness to all, regardless of age.

Join us following the film for a community discussion on active, vivacious aging; intergenerational connections and future living options such as Co-Housing: both Senior & Intergenerational.

(Event is FREE and open to the public! ...but Donations are kindly accepted).

FRIDAY JANUARY 29, 2010, 7-9:30 PM

Film: "MONEY DRIVEN MEDICINE" (86 minutes, Jigsaw Productions & Gabriel Film Group, 2009)

MONEY-DRIVEN MEDICINE provides the essential introduction Americans need if they are to become knowledgeable participants in healthcare reform.

This illuminating documentary will help viewers distinguish between the structural changes we need and sham reform proposals. It will help them realize why a sound, sustainable medical infrastructure is crucial not just to their personal futures but to the economy and society as a whole, why curing America's healthcare crisis is a matter of national life and death.

(Event is FREE and open to the public! ...but Donations are kindly accepted).

FRIDAY FEBRUARY 5, 2010, 7-9:30 PM

Film: "ASPARAGUS! STALKING THE AMERICAN LIFE" (53 minutes, Kirsten Kelly and Anne de Mare, 2009)

For 30 years, Oceana County Michigan has been the Asparagus Capital of the World. Now its spear-struck residents and family farms take on the U.S. War on Drugs, Free Trade and a Fast Food Nation, all to save their beloved roots.

In Michigan, not only are thousands of union members out of work, the government is helping other countries grow asparagus as part of the war on drugs, creating unfair competition for farmers in Oceana County, once the Asparagus Capital of the World. But Michigan farmers are not giving up! These indomitable Michiganders struggle to find creative ways to save their livelihood and their beloved roots. This fascinating, award-winning film, called 'oddly brilliant' by New York Magazine, unveils the complex connections between community identity, farming, politics and trade.

(Event is FREE and open to the public! ...but Donations are kindly accepted).

FRIDAY FEBRUARY 12, 2010, 7-9:30 PM

Film: "FOOD, INC." (93 minutes, Robert Kenner, 2009) ..."MEANINGFUL COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS", every 2nd Friday

Following the film, join us for a community discussion on our own local food security.

IT'S ALSO MEANINGFUL MOVIES' 7th ANNIVERSARY!

In FOOD, INC., filmmaker Robert Kenner lifts the veil on our nation's food industry, exposing the highly mechanized underbelly that's been hidden from the American consumer with the consent of our government's regulatory agencies, USDA and FDA. Our nation's food supply is now controlled by a handful of corporations that often put profit ahead of consumer health, the livelihood of the American farmer, the safety of workers and our own environment. Featuring interviews with such experts as Eric Schlosser (Fast Food Nation), Michael Pollan (The Omnivore's Dilemma) along with forward thinking social entrepreneurs like Stonyfield Farms' Gary Hirschberg and Polyface Farms' Joe Salatin, FOOD, INC. reveals surprising -- and often shocking truths -- about what we eat, how it's produced, who we have become as a nation and where we are going from here..

(Event is FREE and open to the public! ...but Donations are kindly accepted).
