Film: PLAYING FOR CHANGE - THE MOVIE: “PEACE THROUGH MUSIC”

(83 min, Mark Johnson and Jonathan Walls, 2008)

PEACE THROUGH MUSIC is a story of hope, struggle, perseverance and joy. Musicians from different cultures uniting together for the common purpose of peace through music, is a powerful statement. The idea for this project arose from a common belief that music has the power to break down boundaries and overcome distances between people. No matter whether people come from different geographic, political, economic, spiritual or ideological backgrounds, music has the universal power to transcend and unite us as one human race. And with this truth firmly fixed in their minds, Directors Mark Johnson and Jonathan Walls, along with the PLAYING FOR CHANGE team, carrying portable recording equipment, traveled the globe with a single minded passion to connect the world through music.

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 19, 2010, 7-9:30 PM

Film: “WORKERS REPUBLIC” (60 min, Andrew Friend, 2010)

WORKERS' REPUBLIC chronicles one of the most important labor victories in recent memory.

Three weeks before Christmas 2008, in the depths of the economic crisis, Chicago company Republic Windows and Doors announced the factory's closure, with no pay for the workers', no severance and no insurance. The response of these ordinary people harkened back to the sit-down strikes of the 1930s and reminded the working class it possesses a power long forgotten. This is the story of how they occupied the factory, declaring they would not leave until they were given what their employer owed them, making headlines all over the world. A testimony to courage, the creativity, and the solidarity to stand up for one's rights. (Event is FREE and open to the public! ...but Donations are kindly accepted).
