FRIDAY JULY 16, 2010, 7-9:30 PM

Film: "PLUNDER: THE CRIME OF OUR TIME" (100 min, Danny Schechter, 2009)

PLUNDER: THE CRIME OF OUR TIME is a hard-hitting investigative film by Danny Schechter. The "News Dissector" explores how the financial crisis was built on a foundation of criminal activity uncovering the connection between the collapse of the housing market and the economic catastrophe that followed.

(Event is FREE and open to the public! ...but Donations are kindly accepted).

FRIDAY JULY 23, 2010, 7-9:30 PM

Film: "BLACK WAVE: THE LEGACY OF THE EXXON VALDEZ" (100 min, Danny Schechter, 2009)

For twenty years, Riki Ott and the fishermen of the little town of Cordova, Alaska have waged the longest legal battle in U.S. history against the world's most powerful oil company, ExxonMobil. They tell us all about the environmental, social and economic consequences of the black wave that changed their lives forever. This is the legacy of the Exxon Valdez.

(Event is FREE and open to the public! ...but Donations are kindly accepted).

FRIDAY JULY 30, 2010, 7-9:30 PM

Film: "THE IRATE BIRDWATCHER" 54 min, Robert and Kathy Chrestensen, 2009)

It's all about wilderness preservation ... told in the inspiring words of Harvey Manning – the irate birdwatcher. Follow the legendary Northwest writer and conservationist as he discovers the beauty of Washington's wildest places, and the need to stand up and fight for their very survival. This is Harvey's story about this state's unique wilderness ... his deep passion for it, his years of ramblings as an avid backpacker and climber, and his own personal crusade to preserve and protect it for future generations
