FRIDAY MARCH 5, 2010, 7-9:30 PM

Film: "ON PAPER WINGS" (67 min, Ilana Sol, , 2008)

In the spring of 1945, a Japanese balloon bomb claimed the lives of the only people killed on the continental U.S. as the result of enemy action during WWII. Forty years later, the decision to fold a thousand paper cranes would unite the Japanese and American civilians who were involved in and affected by this incident.

"On Paper Wings" is the story of four Japanese women who worked on balloon bombs, the families of those killed in the U.S., and the man whose actions brought them all together forty years after WWII, and the balloon bomb project.

The Transition movement is about communities around the world responding to a convergence of challenges, most particularly global warming and peak oil; and coming together, visioning and co-creating a new resilient way of life. Something very powerful is stirring and taking root the world over – a movement that's positive, focused, viral ...and fun.

FRIDAY MARCH 19, 2010, 6:30-9:30 PM ...COME EARLY!

Film: "JANG AUR AMAN" (WAR & PEACE) (Anand Patwardhan, 2002)

"War and Peace begins and ends with the ideas of Mahatma Gandhi. Focusing on the danger of nuclear war in the Indian subcontinent this documentary goes on to describe the problems faced by people living near nuclear testing and mining sites, the horror of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, the culpability of the USA in using Atom bombs on a nation that was about to surrender, the globalization of the arms trade, but most of all it derives its power and emotional appeal from the growing movement for peace both in India and in Pakistan.

"The film itself is a tour de force, beautifully shot and often darkly funny and much more riveting than the dry subject matter might suggest." - The Guardian, UK

(Event is FREE and open to the public! ...but Donations are kindly accepted).
